Use this checklist to record what you think you can do (Column 1). Ask someone else, for example your teacher, to also assess what they think you can do (Column 2). Use Column 3 to mark those things that you cannot yet do which you feel are important for you (Column 3 = Objectives).

Add to the list – perhaps with your teacher – other things that you can do, or that are important for your language learning at this level.

Listening 1 can understand when someone speaks very slowly to me and articulates carefully, with long pauses for me to assimilate meaning. 1 can understand simple directions how to get from X to Y, by foot or public transport. 1 can understand questions and instructions addressed carefully and slowly to me and follow short, simple directions. 1 can understand numbers, prices and times. Reading 1 can understand information about people (place of residence, age, etc.) in newspapers. 1 can locate a concert or a film on calendars of public events or posters and identify where it takes place and at what time it starts. 1 can understand a questionnaire (entry permit form, hotel registration form) well enough to give the most important information about myself (name, surname, date of birth, nationality). 1 can understand words and phrases on signs encountered in everyday life (for instance "station", "car park", "no parking", "no smoking", "keep left". 1 can understand the most important orders in a computer programme such as "PRINT", "SAVE", "COPY", etc. 1 can lollow short simple written directions (e.g. how to go from X to Y). 1 can understand short simple messages on postcards, for example holiday greetings.
